ARTICLE 1 -- FULL NAME OF THE AGREEMENT

The full name of this Agreement is the Blue Star/South Seas Cooperative Working Agreement.

ARTICLE 2 -- PURPOSE OF THE AGREEMENT

The purpose of this Agreement is to promote service, stability, and efficiency in the Trade (as defined in Article 4) by authorising the parties to exchange information, to discuss matters of mutual interest and concern in the Trade, to reach non-binding consensus upon rates, rules, terms and conditions of common carrier service in the Trade, and to discuss and formulate cooperative service arrangements in the Trade.

ARTICLE 3 -- PARTIES TO THE AGREEMENT

The names and addresses of the parties to this Agreement are set forth in Appendix A hereof.

ARTICLE 4 -- GEOGRAPHIC SCOPE OF THE AGREEMENT

This Agreement covers the trade (the "Trade") between (a) all U.S. Pacific Coast ports and interior and coastal points in the United States and (b) all ports and interior and coastal points in Cook Islands, Fiji, New Caledonia, Vanuatu, Western Samoa, Solomon Islands, Society Islands, Tonga, Kiribati, Tuvalu and Papua New Guinea.

ARTICLE 5 -- OVERVIEW OF AGREEMENT AUTHORITY

5.1 The parties, or any of them, are authorized, but not required, to meet, exchange information and discuss and reach consensus or agreement upon uniform or differential transportation rates, charges, classifications, rules, service items including arranging or not arranging inland transport, freight forwarder compensation, credit and per diem terms and conditions, rates and terms of service contracts, practices and any other term or condition relating without limitation to any aspect of ocean transportation or common carrier service in the Trade, whether or not such rates, charges, classifications, etc. are required to be included in a tariff or a service contract. Matters subject to this authority include, but are not limited to, port-to-port rates, overland rates, volume rates, port area intermodal rates, through rates, interior point intermodal rates and minilandbridge rates for service in the Trade. The parties are not authorized to publish a common tariff. The parties shall have no obligation to adhere, other than voluntarily, to any consensus or agreement reached under the authority of this Article 5.1. If any party shall decide not to adhere to any such consensus or agreement, it shall endeavor to promptly notify each other party of such decision.

5.2 The parties, or any of them, are authorized to meet, exchange information, and to discuss, negotiate and agree upon the formulation of any lawful agreement permitting the rationalization of service, equipment or capacity in all or any part of the Trade, by joint service, or otherwise; provided that no such agreement may become effective until all governmental conditions required to be fulfilled prior to its effectiveness shall have been fulfilled.

5.3 The parties, or any of them, are authorized to charter space on their respective vessels in the Trade to/from each other at such rates as may be agreed to from time to time by a two-thirds vote of all parties. Other terms and conditions of such space charter arrangements shall be determined by the parties involved, unless two thirds of the parties vote to establish such terms and conditions, in which case they shall govern any such arrangements. The parties may also exchange, interchange and lease empty containers, chassis and other like equipment among themselves, at rates, terms and conditions as may agreed to by the parties involved, unless two thirds of the parties vote to establish such terms and conditions, in which case they shall govern any such arrangements. Provided, however, that nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prohibit any party or parties from chartering space or exchanging equipment among themselves or with other parties under rates, terms and conditions established pursuant to an agreement filed with the Federal Maritime Commission and effective pursuant to the Shipping Act of 1984, even if such rates, terms, and conditions are different from those established pursuant to this Article 5.3. A maximum of six vessels, each with a capacity of up to 1200 TEUs, shall be utilized under this Agreement.

5.4 In furtherance of the foregoing, parties may meet together; may adopt administrative rules (including procedures for the conduct of meetings and the sharing of expenses incurred hereunder); may appoint committees with such authority as the parties shall delegate to them; may retain consultants or other third parties, may compile and

The parties shall have no obligation to adhere, other than voluntarily, to any consensus or agreement reached under the authority of this Article 5.1. If any party shall decide not to adhere to any such consensus or agreement, it shall endeavor to promptly notify each other party of such decision.

5.2 The parties, or any of them, are authorized to meet, exchange information, and to discuss, negotiate and agree upon the formation of any lawful agreement permitting the rationalization of service, equipment or capacity in all or any part of the Trade, by joint service, or otherwise; provided that no such agreement may become effective until all governmental conditions required to be fulfilled prior to its effectiveness shall have been fulfilled.

5.3 The parties, or any of them, are authorized to charter space on their respective vessels in the Trade to/from each other at such rates as may be agreed to from time to time by a two-thirds vote of all parties.
